CHICAGO, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 27, 1898.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

NEW RECORDS THIS YEAR.

Record breaking performances were not numerous in 1898, and outside of jumping races were confined to two tracks, Oakland and Washington Park. Only one record was made at Oakland, but it was highly important, being the new mark at two miles set by Judge Denny. Washington Park track was so phenomenally fast last July that it is no wonder records were smashed right and left. The only wonder is that more was not done in that line. Unless something sensational is done at San Francisco before the beginning of the coming year it may be set down that the new records of 1898 are those here set forth. Mary Black's and Macy's records are of course only ties of those previously made by O'Connell and Flora Louise at six furlongs and Maid Marian at a mile and twenty yards.

DUFFY TO BE REINSTATED.

Owner Duffy and trainer Diebold, who were ruled off last summer on Jockey Aker's testimony to the effect that they had tried to induce him to use an electric saddle in a race at Latonia, are to be given a chance to do better. Of the decision of the Latonia officials in the case yesterday's Cincinnati Enquirer says:

"The Executive Committee of the Latonia Association held its third and final meeting in the case of Arthur Duffy at the clubhouse at Latonia yesterday afternoon, and a decision was reached in the case. The finding of the committee, which is given below verbatim, is very much in the nature of 'Guilty, but not proved.' As a matter of fact, the decision carries with it the idea that Duffy and Diebold were guilty in intent, but that 'the corrupt acts were only attempted, and not accomplished.' The decision, while it is a vindication of the Latonia judges in the action which they took in the premises, cannot but impress one who understands the English language as a case of 'whitewash.' Its one redeeming feature lies in the fact that Diebold, the comparatively friendless trainer, has been given the benefit of the influence which was brought to bear in favor of Mr. Duffy.

"The official decision in the case is as follows:

"The Executive Committee of the Latonia Jockey Club, after hearing the testimony upon rehearing in the matter of Arthur Duffy and C. H. Diebold, ruled off by the judges at Latonia the day of —, 1898, and in view of the fact that the corrupt acts were only attempted but not accomplished, decides that with the concurrence of the judges the punishment inflicted by them be remitted to suspension until January 1, 1899.

"J. C. SHERLOCK, President.
"E. C. HOPPER, Secretary."

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The regular California winter racing season begins Saturday next with the opening at the beautiful Oakland track. While the bulk of the eastern horses that will be campaigned over the San Francisco tracks have not as yet been started overland, there is no lack of good racing material already on hand, several hundred horses being stabled at the Oakland and Ingleside tracks. Joseph A. Murphy will act as presiding judge at Oakland with John J. Carter and J. W. Brooks as associates, while the "only" J. B. Ferguson will as usual attend to the starting. Mr. Brooks will also discharge the duties of clerk of the scales and handicapper. As to Ingleside, it is reported that Edward Smith, of Sacramento, secretary of The State Fair Association, will be the presiding judge, with Harry Kuhl as one of the associates. A season of racing fully as prosperous and interesting as that of last year is confidently anticipated.

Secretary J. W. Russwurm was in Cincinnati Tuesday and gave the Enquirer the following information concerning the coming Nashville meeting: "Racing on the Canadian circuit will come to a close Saturday, and about 250 horses will go from Windsor to Nashville. While here yesterday Mr. Russwurm had assurance from a number of the owners now racing at Latonia that they will ship to Nashville within the next few days. The same parties who are in control at Windsor will give the meeting at Nashville. Glenn & Co. have bought the betting privileges, and will operate the ring, and Jake Holtman, whose work at Windsor is reported to be first class, will do the starting. Mr. Russwurm considers the prospects for a successful meeting at Cumberland Park good."

Will Woodard, accompanied by his light-weight jockey, Dupee, arrived at Latonia Tuesday from Chicago. Simon W., Agitator and Hats Off, his horses, also arrived and are quartered at Latonia. Woodard raced in the east all summer and had a very successful campaign. At the close of the Latonia meeting he will ship his stable to New Orleans.

Owing to the unfavorable weather it has been decided to close the Windsor meeting today instead of next Saturday. This decision will give the turfmen at Windsor ample time to ship their horses to Nashville and rest them a few days before the opening of racing there.

J. S. Quinton, of Philadelphia, and a party of capitalists are to start a big breeding establishment near Trenton, N. J. They will be in the market for breeding stock, and have bought the mares Peg Woffington and Divide, both in foal to Meddler.

N. Turner has signed a six-months' contract to ride for "Kid" Weller and will go to San Francisco along with the latter's string of a dozen or so horses, among which are Hugh Penny, Don Quixote, Harry Gaines and Sutton.

Jockey C. Combs, who ran away from St. Louis and Tomlinson & Co., last summer, has repented and rejoined his employers at Latonia. He has been forgiven and will ride for the stable at Latonia and New Orleans.

Apparently John J. McCafferty intends to cut a wide swath at New Orleans. To his other recent purchases he has added the speedy fillies Lilian Bell, 3, and Frances Booker, 2; prices private.

Little O'Connor, who has done so much good riding for "Father Bill" Daly, has been engaged as light-weight for 1899 by Fleischmann Sons.

J. W. Colt has bought Dr. Catlett and Rinaldo II. from Turney Bros. at private sale.

Time, 12%, 24%, 36%, 49%, 1:03, 1:17.
Winner—B. c. by Tristan—Fiona.
Post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won handily. The track suited Trillo. He is a good mud horse and ran a fast race for the track. Harry Reed is becoming good. He was short today. Athy had a great burst of speed, but could not last the route. Hanwell ran a bad race. Scratched—Takanassee, 115; Gitty, 108; King Menelak, 169.
Trillo, place, 4 to 5; show, 1 to 3. Harry Reed, place, 1 to 2. Midlight, show, even.
